From Banbury and Adderbury: Drive through Aynho village and continue towards Croughton. Stay on the main B4100 and when you get to the sharp bend turn left to Charlton and the entrance to the field is 100 yards on the left.

From Brackley area: you can either travel through Croughton and when you get to the big bend, do not enter the main road but take a sharp right to Charlton and the entrance to the field is 100 yards on your left.

If you travel from Brackley through Charlton, follow the sharp bend to the right and take next left to Aynho. The entrance to the field is at the end of this road on your right (from the 3rd layby), before you reach the main B4100.

From Bicester, the M40 and A43: Take the B4100 to Aynho and just before the village where the road bends sharply to the left, go straight on towards Charlton and the entrance to the field is 100 yards on your left.
